HOTELS

The Roundtree
Nestled between East Hampton and Montauk in Amagansett, the Roundtree offers a serene getaway from city life. Enjoy renovated cottages, cruiser bikes, beach shuttles, and gourmet room service from Il Buco al Mare, perfect for summer escapes. 273 Main Street, Amagansett, NY 11930; theroundtreehotels.com

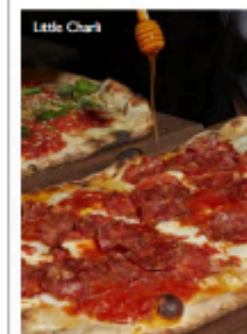

The 1770 House
Located in the heart of East Hampton, the 1770 House features six guestrooms and a two-story carriage house, stocked with Molton Brown amenities and Frette linens. Also onsite are two restaurants from Chef Michael Rozzi. 143 Main Street, East Hampton, NY; 1770house.com

Marram Montauk
A luxury boutique resort nestled amidst Montauk's sand dunes, Marram Montauk offers effortless luxury and immersion in surf culture. With 96 rooms, a South American café by Chef Fernando Troccha, and surf lessons, the resort highlights laid-back elegance and local experiences including a weekly Summer Paella Nights all season long. 21 Oceanview Terrace, Montauk, NY 11954; marrammontauk.com

RESTAURANTS

Little Charli
West Village pizzeria Little Charli is now open in East Hampton, offering authentic Roman-style pizzas and pizzamaking classes by pizzaiolo Salvatore Olivella. Open until 4 a.m. on Saturdays, swing by late to sample the menu featuring a margherita pie, a spicy diablo, and the Godfather, an impressive meter-long option. 44 Three Mile Harbor Road, East Hampton, NY 11937; littlecharli.com

Sag Harbor Tavern
From the team behind Red Hook Tavern and Hometown Bar-B-Que, this new spot in Sag Harbor is already the toughest table in town — and for good reason. Located at the American Legion Hall on Bay Street, Sag Harbor Tavern serves locally sourced seafood, ham and cheese croquettes, and the iconic dry-aged Pat LaFrieda burger. 26 Bay Street, Sag Harbor, NY 11963; sagharbortavern.com
